

Society of Actuaries (SOA) Elects Michael Frank to Reinsurance Section Counsel

MyHealthGuide Source: Aquarius Capital, 9/23/07, www.AquariusCapital.com and www.AquariusLife.com and www.soa.org

New York, NY - Michael L. Frank, President of Aquarius Capital Solutions Group LLC and Aquarius Life Solutions LLC, has been elected to the Society of Actuaries (SOA) Reinsurance Section Counsel. Michael has more than twenty years of experience in the life, accident and health insurance industry. He is credentialed as an actuary and licensed as an insurance broker, reinsurance intermediary and managing general underwriter. His appointment with SOA is effective October 2007.

About Society of Actuaries

The Society of Actuaries (SOA) is the largest actuarial professional organization in the world. It is dedicated to serving 18,000 members and the public. The SOA's vision is for actuaries to be recognized as the leading professionals in the modeling and management of financial risk and contingent events. Access information on the SOA's history and plans for the future as well as the two most recent annual reports. Visit www.soa.org.

About Aquarius Capital

Aquarius Capital is an independently owned company with offices in New York and Connecticut. Aquarius Capital provides an array of services to its clients including actuarial, underwriting, insurance/employee benefits brokering, product development, and reinsurance risk management services. Clients include self-funded employers, insurance companies, financial institutions, investment bankers, reinsurers, managed care companies, municipalities, school districts, brokerage firms, hedge funds, health care providers and Fortune 500 companies requiring expertise in the life, accident and healthcare market. Aquarius Life Solutions LLC is a boutique organization specializing in life settlements industry. Contact Michael Frank at 914-933-0063, michael.frank@aquariuscapital.com or visit www.AquariusCapital.com and www.AquariusLife.com.